Rising Economic Inequality in the 21st Century

March 2, Friday, William T. Young Library Auditorium, 8:30-4:00

Panel

- Lane Kenworthy (Sociologist, U AZ), "America's Struggling Lower Half."
- Rashmita Mistry (Psychologist, UCLA), "Income Inequality Stress on Child & Family Well Being."
- Leslie McCall (Sociologist, Northwestern), "American Beliefs about Income Inequality from the 1980s to Occupy Wall Street."
- Martin Gilens (Political Science, Princeton), "Affluence & Influence: Economic Inequality and Political Power in America."

Faculty Participants and Organizers

Thomas Janoski (Sociology, UK), James Ziliak (Economics, UK), Christia Brown (Psychology, UK), Brea Perry (Sociology, UK), Ed Morris (Sociology, UK), Mark Peffley (Political Science, UK), Richard Fording (Political Science, AL), Robert Rohrschneider (Political Science, KU)

The conference is free and open to the public, but seating is limited so please register at http://qipsr.as.uky.edu/. Continental breakfast, lunch buffet served.

This conference is sponsored by the Quantitative Institute for Social and Policy Research (QIPSR), based in the College of Arts and Sciences, as well as the UK Center for Poverty Research, and Departments of Sociology, Political Science and Psychology.